16 20. California Labor Code Section 501, applicable at all times relevant herein to Plaintiffs'
17 employment by Defendants, provides that all employees are entitled to payment at the 18 rate of time and one half for hours in excess of 8 in one day, or 40 hours in one week, and

20 21. During the course of employment with Defendants, Plaintiffs regularly worked in excess
21 of 8 hours a day and 40 hours per week, however Defendants knowingly and willingly
22 failed to pay Plaintiffs overtime wages as required by law.

23 22. California Labor Code Section 1194 provides that it is unlawful for employers not to 24 make the required overtime payments identified in the preceding paragraph and that 25 employees not paid such payments can recover any monies owed by civil action.

1 23. Defendants therefore owe Plaintiffs overtime wages not properly paid to Plaintiffs in an
2 amount to be determined at trial.

3 24. Defendants have failed and refused and continue to fail and refuse to pay Plaintiffs the 4 amount owed.

5 25. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs the required sum violates the provisions of Labor

18 30. Although Plaintiffs were not so exempt during employment with Defendants, Defendants
19 knowingly caused and permitted Plaintiffs to regularly work in excess of forty hours per 20 week without paying Plaintiffs one and one half of Plaintiffs' regular rate of pay.

21 31. By not paying overtime wages in compliance with the FLSA, defendants violated
22 Plaintiffs' rights under the FLSA.

23 32. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' failure to pay proper wages under the 24 FLSA, Plaintiffs incurred general damages in the form of lost overtime wages.

1 33. Defendants intentionally, with reckless disregard for their responsibilities under the
2 FLSA, and without good cause, failed to pay Plaintiffs proper wages, and thus defendants
3 are liable to Plaintiffs for liquidated damages in an amount equal to lost overtime wages,
4 pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) of the FLSA.

18 provided for in Labor Code § 203.

19 39. As of this date, Defendants have failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to 20 pay the amount due, thus making defendants liable to Plaintiffs for penalties equal to 21 thirty (30) days wages, in an amount to be determined at trial.

22 40. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 218.5, Plaintiffs requests that the court award Plaintiffs 23 reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in this action.

1 41. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 218.6, Plaintiffs requests that the court award interest on 11 work performed in excess of forty hours per week or eight hours per day, unless 12 specifically exempted by law.

13 44. At all times relevant herein, as the employer of Plaintiffs, defendants were subject to the 14 California Unfair Trade Practices Act (California Business and Professions Code §
15 §17000 et seq.), but failed to pay the Plaintiffs overtime pay as required by applicable
16 California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

17 45. During the period Plaintiffs were employed with Defendants, Defendants failed to pay
18 Plaintiffs legally required overtime pay to which he were legally entitled, with defendants
19 keeping to themselves the amount which should have been paid to Plaintiffs.

20 46. In doing so, defendants violated California Unfair Trade Practices Act, Business and 21 Professions Code §17200, et seq. by committing acts prohibited by applicable California
22 Labor Code provisions, California Wage Orders, and the FLSA, thus giving them a 23 competitive advantage over other employers and businesses with whom defendants were 24 in competition and who were in compliance with the law.
25

1 47. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' violations and failure to pay the required
2 overtime pay, the Plaintiffs' rights under the law were violated and the Plaintiffs incurred
3 general damages in the form of unpaid wages in an amount to be determined at trial.

4 48. Defendants had been aware of the existence and requirements of the Unfair Trade

15 employees accurate and complete wage statements including, but not to limited to, an

17 during the pay-period, a complete and itemized statement of deductions, net wages
18 earned, the dates fir which payment is being made, any and all applicable piece rates, and 19 the current address ad name of the employer.

20 52. California Labor Code Section 226 further provides that any employee suffering injury 21 due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may collect the greater of 22 either actual damages or 50$ for the first inadequate pay statement and 100$ for each
23 inadequate statement thereafter.

24 53. During the course of Plaintiffs' employment, defendants consistently failed to provide 25 Plaintiffs with adequate pay statements as required by California Labor Code §226.

1 54. Defendants failed to provide such adequate statements willingly and with full knowledge
2 of their obligations under Section 226.

3 55. Defendants' failure to provide such adequate statements has caused injury to the
